PREFACE.

Wintringham is in the East Riding of Yorkshire, 8 miles from Malton. Knapton, Newton (otherwise Place Newton), and Linton are townships in the Parish.

The Registers begin in 1558. The first and second Books are bound together, and are both written on parchment. The first has leaves $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches by $8\frac{1}{4}$, and the second 11 inches by $6\frac{3}{4}$. The first book has 51 leaves, 30 of which have the top corners destroyed, and the first 10 leaves have a piece in the middle destroyed in addition. In the middle of the second book is bound a small pamphlet of 4 leaves, called "The Prophecies and Predictions of James Usher, late L. Arch-Bishop of Armagh and Primate of Ireland," dated 1678.

The third and fourth Books are also written on parchment. The third one contains the Baptisms and Burials from 1690 to 1771, and the Marriages from 1690 to 1753. These two books were re-bound by Hawes of Cambridge about 40 years ago.

The fourth Book, written on paper by filling up the printed forms, contains the Marriages from 1754 to 1812.

The proofs were all corrected from the original Registers.

The Church is dedicated to St. Peter. The Mother Church was the Priory at Old Malton of the Order of Sempringham.

The Index has been prepared by the Misses O. Butterworth and M. Tempest.
